Hello FCA Southwest Region Members,

Yes, it feels a little funny sitting in this position and addressing you all – I have some big shoes to fill with Diane having done such a great job for the last two years and each of the past Presidents giving so much to our FCA Region. As Kenny Lombino says so often, “to the best car club anywhere, by far.”

And I must say the KERS launch button has been pushed – sit back and get ready for some G-forces – here come the next year’s events fast and furious to borrow a phrase. We are already gearing up for fund raising, social events, In Your Area Drives, activities and Ferrari partnerships. Each daunting chores with the need for strong member participation.

I welcome the new and continuing Board Members to the leadership of the FCA Southwest Region. I like each of you very much and I’m gratified each time I get the opportunity to work with you and get to know you better. Our Membership is lucky to have you. So as more of the Membership gets involved and we reach out to new and continuing Members, let’s work together to continue making this the most outstanding Region for the FCA. This is just the team, and I’m just the guy to call you up and ask for your help.

We anticipate a strong relationship with our Partners who support not only our Ferrari brand and your FCA Region, but our broader automotive, racing, safety, community and charitable interests. We have the ever growing links to our Ferrari dealer and service groups, the CHP 11-99 Foundation, The Petersen Automotive Museum, Ferrari of North America, the Art Center College of Design, FCA National and others. You will each have many opportunities to jump in and be part of these strong associations on behalf of the FCA Southwest Region.

Look for the event promotions, come and share your ideas, get involved and come out for the fun and friendships we build here for a lifetime.

Thank you for the honor to serve as President for the coming term. My phone and email are open to you for any reason, please use them freely.

“Stay off the wall,”

Peter Carniglia

Concorso Ferrari

on Colorado Boulevard in Old Pasadena

Our annual

concourse on the streets of Pasadena was held on Sunday, May 19, 2013. It was a lovely day, not too hot and a little overcast in the morning, but the sun came out and so did the huge throng of spectators that viewed all of the cars throughout the day!

We had over 140 Ferraris lined up on Colorado Boulevard for three blocks in historic Old Pasadena, with sponsor's displays of cars and merchandise showcased down the middle of the street. There were over 50 Ferraris judged and we were able to get the awards done in time this year! Announcer Alan Bolté interviewed owners during the course of the day which were broadcast throughout Concorso Ferrari's venue.

In addition to the class awards which are listed separately, there were three special awards given out. Best of Show went to the ex-Gianni Agnelli 400 SA #1517 SA of Robert Butler and brought to the show by Norbert Hofer of Gran Touring Classics. The award for the Best Ferrari on the Boulevard went to the ex-Bob Wilke Ghia bodied 375 MM #0476 presented by the Blackhawk Automotive Museum. The People's Choice award went to John Etchart who displayed his beautiful black 246 GTS Dino #4296.

Thanks to all the sponsors and vendors who help make this show a success, and to all our members who brought their cars. Also thanks to the judges who worked hard to get me the results so we could hand out the awards before the 3 pm closing time!

Election Picnic

South Coast Botanic Garden

Fifty gorgeous

Ferraris decorated the perfectly manicured lawn at the South Coast Botanic Garden. The impressive showing of the 12 outstanding 355s that were honored delighted the crowd of Ferrarists.

The waif of burgers on the grill, the light cloud cover in the morning, the chatter of Ferrari friends old & new made this garden setting a perfect Ferrari day. After a delicious BBQ with thanks to chefs Marv Landon & Kenny Lombino, the time was right to announce the new team.

I opened the Election Picnic proceedings by announcing the Engaged Member Award so rightly presented to Tom Brockmiller. He has given so much of his time and energy to the club. Next, I presented a special thank you award to Demetri Zafiris for serving as Treasurer for the club for the last 15 years. A job well done! I presented a special gift to the 355 that was uniquely adorned with carbon fiber owned by Ron Stavis.

We missed retiring Board Members Tex Otto and Jack Curtis who were given rounds of applause in their absence. The new Board Members were then announced Denise Ferrari-Membership Chairwoman, Peter Riley, Kenny Lombino and Marshall Buck. Bruce Leeds announced as Secretary, Richard Kidd as Treasurer, Mark Process as Vice President and Peter Carniglia as our new President. I will serve as Chairwoman of the Board joined with continuing Board member Jim Bindman.

I passed the Presidential Bat to Peter and let him know that I would be around to help and guide him if needed. I wish the very best to our new team of leaders. A fine day was enjoyed by all. SF

It was a picnic—not a concours, but most of the Ferraris in attendance were clean enough to eat off of. Kenny and Marv flippin' and servin' tasty burgers and fixin's as Linda Brockmiller and Jill Landon help with the preparations. A 430 Spider rolls by the honored 355s which took center stage at the Botanic Gardens. Diane presented Demetri Zafiris with a tribute award as gratitude for his 15 years of dedication as our club's Treasurer. Tom Brockmiller was deservedly christened this year's Most Engaged Member for his long-standing contributions to the FCA Southwest Region.

Southwest Region regularly offers driving schools at local tracks for our members, so that they can learn about their Ferrari's handling characteristics and enjoy the fantastic performance of their cars. With Chuckwalla Raceway, Willow Springs and the Auto Club Speedway in our area, there is no excuse as to why you are not enjoying your high performance car in the safe environment of a dedicated track facility.

The FCA SW Region hosted a successful Annual Meet including a track event at Chuckwalla Valley International Raceway on October 12-14 last year, for which I served as Track Event Chair, with Peter Carniglia as my hardworking lieutenant.

Chuckwalla is a challenging 23 turn track with significant elevation changes and can be run either clockwise or CCW, as we did. I engaged the services of ten driving instructors, under J.D. DeBoer, including regulars we use at Willow Springs - David Christian, Rod Bean, Manzar Kuraishi, and Dale Schaub, with Danny McKeever as Chief Track Steward, and Steve Stavely as Lead Operating Steward. George Parker and his team of 3 experienced men did Pit/Grid/Tech Inspection management. My wife Lorian did Registration, and Jack Curtis sold lunch tickets.

Peter Carniglia worked tirelessly to make the event run smoothly, putting up signs, banners, and lunch tables, bringing the run group color board, tools, and goodie bags. All who came out to Chuckwalla had a great time, and a safe one.

Ferraris on Track

One of the drivers I interviewed and rode with was Karlton Spindle, whose 599 GTB Fiorano was noticeable by its charitable symbols. After riding with him as he skillfully and very quickly maneuvered his Ferrari around the 23 turn track, I imposed on him to let me snap him with "helmet hair."

Karlton's favorite charity is the Susan Komen Foundation, his car sporting the usual "race for the cure" pink ribbon plus a special message (Save 2nd Base) designed by Karlton. As he drives around Lake Arrowhead, he gets daily flashes of appreciation from the local ladies.

Parked behind the 599 is Richard Kidd's Mondial which he drove enthusiastically all three days. Rich is a tall man and the Mondial provided plenty of legroom.

At our Willow Springs Driving School held in March of this year, FCA drivers were invited to the West Coast Racing/Pantera Owner's Club event at Willow Springs International Raceway. There was a nice turnout of most all marques of sports cars, with the exception of - Ferrari! May I remind you that Ferraris are good for more than resting luxuriantly in quiet repose on grassy surfaces!

One gentleman, Mike Puize brought his dark green Porsche 911 GT-2 instead of his 458 Italia. As I rode around instructing him on the line, I noticed that the Porsche didn't seem as smooth and stable as the Ferraris and Corvettes that I am familiar with. I'm not sure why, but I remember when I was racing my 1988 Corvette at Willow, the Porsches in front of me exhibited the same twitchy behavior around turn 8 at 125 MPH.

Another driver I tutored, 24 year old Sterling Knight turned out to be a natural. Driving his 2006 Corvette, Sterling picked up the line quickly and started running very smooth, therefore fast laps. If his acting career keeps taking off, I expect he'll have a Ferrari some day. Jim Brady also showed excellent skills in carving around the 9 turn track in his red AMG C63. This car was remarkably powerful and poised in its on-track at-speed behavior.

Our next track event is scheduled for the second weekend in November, the 9th and 10th, at Willow Springs International Raceway. The sign up info is in this issue of Sempre. There is also further info at: <http://www.westcoastracinginc.com/WCR/Welcome.html>. We like to stay at the Oxford Inn & Suites in Lancaster. Ask for the West Coast Racing deal. Breakfast buffet is included, plus a couple of bar drinks in the evening.

As usual, professional instructors will be included. You may buy a book by Ed Reeser on the Willow line from Amazon.com (Race Track Attack Guide - Willow Springs-available in paperback or Kindle format).

Here is a link to a video from a Porsche driver showing a nice line and explaining how to take each corner: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=fLCPHnA54cQ>

Here is a fun vintage video showing three GTO's and a California Spyder on the road and at Willow: http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Md\_jcC6OnIU

Make sure you and your car are prepped for a safe track event. Car prep includes having a fire extinguisher, a Snell 2000 or later rated helmet, and fresh brake fluid. Your car must pass a tech inspection per the event registration package.

I hope to see some Ferrari drivers there to hone the Art of Driving Fast, Safe, and Smooth!

Meet The Painted Turtle

Growing

Article and Photos By

up in a cold, gray and flat part of Northern Germany, a lot of my day-dreams revolved around Ferraris, modern architecture and a life in Southern California. When things were rather difficult on many levels about a year ago, friends pointed me to life coach Anthony Robbins. After participating in a couple of his events, I realized that after most of my childhood dreams had become a reality, including that 512BBi, that this very stagnant phase in my life was due to a lack of more dreams and goals. I became to understand and believe that the strength of my thoughts play a substantial role in their realization, that I had to clearly focus on my goals and write them down.

Our five-year legal battle with my neighbor across the street was progressing very rapidly towards the inevitable removal of the driveway bridge that connected the upper floor studio/garage with the road. Around March 15th the opportunity came up to test Robbins' strategy as I realized that I had to do something special, like having an Enzo photographed inside my garage before it was too late. By the end of the day, the initial idea had turned into an entire event - we would donate to a charity for every Ferrari that would pull in and get professionally photographed, we would make a photo book and provide some food.

When a friend and neighbor had passed away the prior year, it was suggested to give to The Painted Turtle, a children's charity that he had co-founded. Coincidentally, the FCA SW had just visited their property near Lake Hughes, which turned out to be of great help in accomplishing the next step - to get the Club to support the event at their April 13th board meeting. From knowing a handful of Ferrari-related people, I suddenly found myself with something much more important than VIN numbers - phone numbers! Wally Clark generously provided me with direct access to some of Ferrari's most important prefixes - 250, 275, 330 and 365, and the question was no longer which car I would like, but which color.

Holger Schubert built his Maserati-sponsored Architectural Digest award winning garage to showcase his beautiful grigio 512 BBi. With all city required permits obtained, a few of his neighbors thought the bridge to his garage posed a safety risk and demanded it be removed.

This article recounts Holger's positive response to adversity that has provided a charitable contribution to a very worthy cause and many lasting memories.

In addition, Mike Sage and Kenny Lombino patiently went through their address books to help match my wish list. Early on, my dream was to get a California Spyder and follow-through on the architectural resemblance to Ferris Bueller's infamous glass enclosed garage. Robbins would teach to always check on your goals, be flexible and re-adjust, which came in handy as within a day the California Spyder was confirmed. Well, why not test his theories' limit and reach for the impossible, I thought.

My wife took the kids out of school on that cloudy Wednesday when Tony Nobles' 2001 Schumacher F1 car was quietly rolled in. This was the time to show off to my friend in that cold and flat Northern German hometown of mine, and I started up the Skype camera. Ten professional car, fashion and architectural photographers donated their time during what turned into an epic eight day event, particularly for myself and the photographers that celebrated the arrival of each car as it was the Christmas day that brought the slot car track set.

On the first day, a perfect California blue sky morning, Peter McCoy arrived in his Andalusian Gold 1958 Ferrari 250 GT Pinin Farina Cabriolet Series I - in my garage. I could have stopped the event right there and called it an incredible success if it hadn't been for that distinguished, violent engine sound coming from the Beverly Hills direction. While most cars announced themselves as they were coming up Tigertail Road and before any shutter needed to click, we all heard Bruce Meyer's 1961 250 SWB Competizione even before he entered the Mulsanne Straight and crossed the 405. Each new day trumped the previous - after 33 Ferraris and 21 other most remarkable cars left imprints of their sculptural forms, their reflections and their passion in our minds and on our Sim cards, I had to get back to reality - and was finally ready for "bridge closure."

We raised $13,000 for The Painted Turtle, we met a lot of wonderful people, and Randy Reiss initiated a whole "goal setting workshop" when he let me take my 11-year old daughter for a spin in his red 250 GT Cabriolet.

With much gratitude to the FCA Southwest Region, all participants and the photographers, Holger & Yuriko Schubert.

Our photo book that chronicles the beautiful cars in the unique environment will become available later this year with all proceeds going to The Painted Turtle Children's Camp.

for The Painted Turtle

Article and Photos By
Bruce Leeds

Heading up Tigertail Road on a sunny Saturday morning, we joined a group of Ferraris on a short cul-de-sac waiting to be photographed in Holger Schubert's garage/living room. When our turn came, we went up the street and across the controversial bridge into the unique room through an electric door that opens in the center to allow ingress and egress.

Holger's garage/living room was converted into a photo studio for the occasion. The subject cars were parked at one end of the room next to the bridge and electrically operated doors. The rest of the room was filled with a camera tripod and equipment, a large table, a laptop computer and other items needed by Holger and the two professional photographers. They busily snapped away while we watched the proceedings (and took a few photos ourselves). We were joined by two neighbors out walking their dogs who stood on the bridge and watched the photo session.

Holger graciously provided snacks and goodie bags for the participants. There were also photos and literature illustrating The Painted Turtle Camp who would be the beneficiary of the photo sessions.

Before leaving we also made a contribution to The Painted Turtle. We then backed out of the room across the bridge and onto the street. We waved goodbye to Holger and the photographers and hello to the next Ferrari coming up the street for its photo session.

Jet Propulsion Laboratory

Exclusive Tour & Lunch

JPL, a name

Article By Mark Process

synonymous with aerospace research and state of the art technology has been a part of our Southern California culture since its inception in 1930, but few people really know what kind of activities are actually conducted at this facility. On March 15, 40 lucky FCA members were treated to an exclusive “behind the scenes” tour of the Jet Propulsion Laboratory and the amazing technologies being developed right here in our own backyard.

When people say that “nothing good is ever built in America” they certainly are not understanding how much JPL has contributed to products and services we use in our everyday lives. Certain aspects of air travel and computer technology were first implemented for various NASA sponsored projects designed and manufactured at JPL. A prime example of this kind of cutting edge technology was demonstrated for us in the Planetary Exploration Vehicle Robotics lab where JPL engineers were simulating robotic movements in a 1/6th gravity environment. We watched as a team of software developers were writing computer code to control the movement of a mechanical vehicle as if it were traveling on the moon. Seems very far fetched for us here on earth, but this kind of research could someday be implemented in real world applications such as building artificial “intelligent” robotics that could assist people. But in the meantime, it was fun to watch an enormous six-legged robot bounce up and down as if it were almost weightless.

The next experimental environment we were introduced to was the outdoor “Mars Yard” where a duplicate of the Mars Rover “Curiosity” was being manipulated by remote control simulating the movements that would be used on the actual rover exploring the Mars surface. The desert scape of the yard which included a variety of other planetary exploration vehicles and an assortment of unusual large rocks, gave the place a very surreal “martian” feel.

The highlight of the tour was our visit to Mission Control. Upon arriving in the guest area which was a glass walled mezzanine, we could see a vast array of high definition viewing screens which showed the coordinates of all the geocentric satellites that are tracked and monitored daily at JPL. Your cell phone reception and cable TV services are dependant on many of these "birds" so yes, this is very important work. We then were escorted through the control room itself, which not many civilians are allowed to do, into a secondary room called the "special operations" control center. This is the room made famous during the monitored decent and landing of the Rover Curiosity onto Mars on August 5th last year. Each person in our group was assigned a control station complete with a computer monitor and headphones as we watched an in house video recording of the decent sequence and the response in the room after the Rover had landed, the overall effect was amazing and left you feeling like you were really there when it happened.

Our final stop was the JPL museum which has a number of interesting exhibits including a life-size model of one of the largest space exploration satellites ever built. This duplicate of the famous Voyager satellite is still traveling and sending back data after 33 years in space. A 3D imaging model of the earth showed the effects of climate change in fast motion plus we also had a lesson in how all space bound vehicles are "ruggedized" to withstand the extreme temperatures and harsh environments of outer space and other planets. Our tour guide Dr. Randii Wessen was an excellent liaison and instructor. At the end of our tour, he entertained us with a "stump the geek" Q & A session, awarding a NASA pin to anyone that could come up with a question he did not know the answer to. Of course no one did, but we all got pins anyway.

After the tour we took a short drive to the quaint town of Montrose for a formal dinner of steak and salmon, all excellently prepared by the chef and wait staff at the Oceanview Bar and Grill. The family-style seating in the restaurant's private dining room afforded everyone an opportunity to discuss the day's events, share a few bottles of wine and enjoy the comradery of fellow FCA members.

The FCA-SW and all of us who had the unique opportunity to attend the JPL tour, would like to thank Dr. Randii Wessen, Dr. Fiorella Terenzi and the staff at JPL for allowing us to experience this truly memorable event.

Mystery Ride

6th Annual Drive to the Unknown

The

Article and Photos By
Kenny Lombino

Mystery Ride is an event that I have been doing for over twenty five years for various clubs I have been a member of. It started for me back in 1988 when I did my first Mystery Ride for the Harley Owners Club. It was during my motorcycle riding days when I learned all of the back roads around the State. I then moved the event to the Jaguar Owners Club, and then to the Rolls-Royce Owners Club.

In 2006 I did my first Mystery Ride for the Ferrari Club and the rest is history. What I love most about putting this event on is seeing so many people have fun. The excitement and anticipation of the event, the curiosity of where are we going, the strategies some of the members use to run the event. There is always the wonder of who if any are not going to read their instructions and wind up getting lost, only have to find their way back to the group. Not to mention the great lunches we all get to share and the great friendships that result.

So back to this event. Saturday morning, 38 beautiful cars showed up carrying 48 people. This year the event started from the parking lot of Marie Callender's restaurant in Sherman Oaks. Many came early to have breakfast and enjoy each other's company. After breakfast we got all the waivers signed and had a driver's meeting. Safety is always brought up as that is our number one concern. Safe driving for you and your fellow participants. This is a fun event, not a competition. There is no one winner. Everyone is a winner who comes. It's all about having fun with a different spin on the ride of not knowing where we are going to end up, and how are we going to get there.

After the meeting we took off, and in what has become typical, there was a Le Mans-type start with everyone running to their cars after receiving the first of instructions to get going. This still always amazes me as no matter how quickly you take off and get to the next stop, you still have to wait for me to get there to give you the next set of instructions. I guess it's just the fun of it.

We left Sherman Oaks and headed out the 405 N. to the 118 E. towards the 210 E. to get to the entrance of the San Gabriel mountains. Driving up into the mountains took us through some beautiful twisty roads with scenic views on both sides of the road. After about 20 miles we came to our first rest stop where we had to wait for a few stragglers. After they finally arrived, the next set of instructions were handed out and we were off on leg two. This took us into the Acton area and we drove through another set of mountains coming out near Bouquet Canyon Rd. Another stop, a bit of waiting for some of the slower cars, and another set of instructions were handed out. Now we were off through Lake Elizabeth winding our way to the back side of Lake Castaic. This road that goes from the back side of the lake is one of the prettiest in our local area, offering challenging turns and beautiful scenery. We came out at the 5 Freeway and then took that to highway 126, then highway 150 to Ojai. Another rest stop, and another set of instructions.

This section took us through Ojai out to Ventura and our lunch stop at the Greek at the Harbor restaurant. The Ventura Harbor approved special parking for our magnificent steeds, and the restaurant went out of their way for us. The owners Makis, Marika, and Aris Mikelatos reserved a special area for us with a huge U shaped table arrangement so all could see each other. The food was amazing, Greek appetizers, all you wanted, Grilled Greek style shrimp, unbelievable Greek lamb chops, salads, pastas and more. And the deserts—all very special. Then the restaurant treated us to a very talented Belly Dancer as we drank our Greek coffee. A fantastic day indeed. My thanks go out to Makis, Marika, and Aris for making this day so special for us. I would highly recommend this restaurant to everyone should you find yourself up in Ventura.

After lunch there was more driving to do but everyone found themselves quite full and a bit tired, so everyone just decided to call it a day and head home down the 101.

All in all, I would have to say we put another fantastic "Mystery Ride" in the history books. There were no mishaps and no one got lost, it's was just a great day of fun. I want to thank all of you for coming, many of which have been on every one. This is my favorite event that I get to put on, and I look forward to seeing all of your smiling faces next April when we will run the 7th Annual Mystery Ride.

a picture perfect day for the prancing horses to gallop through the Santa Monica Mountains. We had 28 gorgeous cars and 42 happy members ready to cruise. We took off from Chez Mimi in the Palisades. The lineup of Ferraris was a joy to behold. I promised a few nervous passengers that our ride would be a touring journey and that it was. I was particularly happy because my brother, Dr. John Peterson, flew in from Vermont to be my navigator. We sailed through the Santa Monica Mountains at an easy steady pace allowing the drivers to enjoy the vistas as well as the passengers. The winding roads brought miles of smiles to our gang of enthusiastic members.

We arrived at the Malibu Golf Club and backed the Ferraris in the reserved parking in the horse shoe drive. How beautiful the shiny cars looked all in a row. Malibu & Vine was our destination. It is an outdoor wine bar with a stage for the band. Our reserved tables had special Ferrari signs on them made by the staff. Soon the waiters were bringing yummy platters of cheese and meats with cones of bread and crackers. Duck tacos followed with a spicy sauce and the tomato and grilled buratta cheese melted in your mouth.

The Brady Harris Band welcomed us and began with the song "Girl" to thank me. My brother John, introduced me to the band several years ago and I've been a fan ever since. The band played two sets of great music. I think they kind of sound like the Beatles. They have a lot of original tunes as well. I took the stage to thank all who came to celebrate the ending of my term as President. I reminded everyone that I wasn't going away, that I'd be the Chairwoman of the Board for the next two years. Since then I've been also appointed to serve as National Membership Chairwoman. The band rocked on as we overlooked the 1st fairway of the emerald green golf course. What a peaceful serene setting for a sweet afternoon. Many thanks to all for made my party special. Happy Motoring!

California Dream

Drive with the Ferrari Owners Club of UAE

Rodeo Drive

Article and Photos By

early Saturday morning was the rendezvous for the California Dream Drive. We were meeting our Ferrari friends from the other side of the world at the Beverly Wilshire Hotel. Fred Kamperman, the President of the Ferrari Owners Club of UAE was there to greet me. They had shipped, by boat, 13 of their own gleaming Ferraris to San Francisco. After a tour of the wine country and a drive hosted by the Pacific Region, they made their way to Los Angeles stopping at the Hearst Castle along the way.

To welcome our guests to Southern California, I organized a three hour drive through the Santa Monica Mountains with two photo stops. 14 of our member's cars were lined up on the streets outside their hotel. We soon heard the roar of the visiting Ferrari engines as the valet drivers emerged the Prancing Horses from their garage. The unusual plates adorned the mostly brand new 458's and California's with a few 430's to round out the pack.

I called for a drivers meeting, where everyone signed the customary waivers and had a safety chat before we zoomed down Rodeo Drive in a glorious parade of Prancing Horses. Heads were spinning and cameras were flashing as we ventured over Benedict Canyon. Drivers were feeling the rush of the fun-filled journey that had just begun. We made our way to the 101 and cruised to the Santa Monica Mountains whose twisty turns and beautiful vistas delighted our guests and members. We stopped for our first photo op which overlooked the majestic mountains. The beautiful Ferraris filled the parking area to the max- it was an incredible site to see.

We took off for more miles of smiles before reaching our next photo stop at El Matador Beach off the Pacific Coast Highway. We climbed on a picnic bench and had some laughs with flags from the UAE Club and lots of happy folks. Our journey took us down through scenic Malibu and then onto the Petersen Automotive Museum where we had a docent lead tour of their magnificent collection.

Our guests were graciously treated to the Petersen tour plus lunch at Johnny Rockets provided by Marv Landon. We dined on burgers and fries and swapped stories about our Ferrari club's different policies such as the higher dues and initiation fees that are charged in the UAE. We traded ideas for events and made some lasting friendships. We were invited to visit them for the F1 race in Abu Dubai and drive on the track as well. I also requested a trip to Ferrari World while we are there. Hopefully we can make that trip happen in the near future.

Fred presented our club with a beautiful "Thank You Prancing Horse Trophy." He also gave us UAE Ferrari Club lapel pins and some special Camel's Milk Chocolate for me! A super fine day was had by all.

cars, so there is no good reason why I had not traveled north in August to enjoy the festivities devoted to some of the most fantastic automobile specimens on the face of the earth. It was by pure luck that I saw an email from fellow FCA-SW member Tom Brockmiller about having to sell his tickets for some of the events last year. I called him immediately and told him I would take whatever he had available. He happened to mention a campsite he had reserved for years and asked if I would be interested. As a fellow RV-er, I decided that would be a perfect place to stay, literally right next to the track. The following is a series of emails I sent Tom during my trip:

Day 1, Thursday

Arrived before 9 pm after an easy drive here. Went up the hills to the campsite in 1st gear on your great advice. Grumpy guy at the gate said I would have to get a raceway ticket for Friday, but the nice lady in the tent didn't mention it. Against your good advice, I tried to park. After 3 tries, a neighbor came over and suggested I come in the other way...illegally driving up the exit. It worked! Settled in for the night without exploring, since it was dark and quiet.

Day 2, Friday

Woke up to a sunny, gorgeous day, with the sounds of cars roaring all around below me. This is fantastic! This Italian is so looking forward to the all-Italian day. When I walked out of my rig, I was blown away. Walking down a short hill, I could see Turn 5, along with the tents, bridges, plethora of every size and shaped car, and surrounding mountains. Sensory overload.

Went to Concorso Italiano and had so much fun, even looked at the Lambos! Easy entry with the wristbands, met lots of people, saw Tex, bought cool Ferrari stuff.

Came back to the campground, easy entry again. Clint (Tom's friend and camping buddy) came over and talked for a while, letting me know that he wants you back, with your car. Great guy.

Starting the BBQ and fire for the evening. Very happy and looking forward to a day at the races tomorrow.

Day 3, Saturday

It must be a thrill to be a skilled driver to the point of mastering this track. Congratulations, Tom!

I got down to the track early, before the first race. A lady suggested going to the corkscrew by courtesy shuttle. That was a great idea and I watched early races there, in different locations up on the hill. I decided that it would be a superb location to bring a chair later.

Once Rob Walton won in his '64 250 LM, I went down to the pits and marveled at the beauty and the activity. Standing there while the cars come in after their race is such a thrill, and looking at the different stages of work being done to gorgeous cars...wow.

Sat in the grandstands to watch and take pictures at Turn 4, then went over the foot bridge to the vendor area. Got a free Shelby Cobra t-shirt and listened to Bob Bondurant and Peter Brock talk about past races and Carroll When I returned to the corkscrew area, I perched on the hill overlooking literally everything, saw several more exciting races. Walked back to camp and on the way stopped to watch the Cobras lap.

Exhausted from another incredible day here, but am ready for the start/finish line and maybe actually looking at what the vendors are peddling. Back at the campground, I haven't seen one squirrel here....but am enjoying the peaceful setting among the oaks.

Day 4, Sunday

Got out to the start/finish line grandstands and saw lots of different car types and two full races. It was fun just watching the cars pull in to the pre-start area, then watch the pace car, and the green flag. The race happenings with the flags and easily-heard announcements were fascinating. I have been to some race events before and they were not nearly as entertaining.

From there, went to watch the Andretti turn from different angles. On to the vendors to waste time and money on stuff, which was fun, too. Spent a couple hours going up and down through the pits and paddock areas, stopping to enjoy so many well-oiled automobiles. Caught one of the end-of-race viewings when all of the cars come off the track, waving at the drivers.

The final 4 races I decided to sit out with the other campers on a chair across from Turn 5. Got to talk with Clint and his wife, Marni, for a few minutes. So many great stories about their time spent there during Monterey Car Week. Packed up and was on the road before 6, got home before midnight.

It was all superb! In future years, I will spend some time in town and go to the Pebble Beach Concours. After the trip I vowed to make it back as often as possible, perhaps with my F355 to cruise around town and enjoy more of the sites. An excellent experience I would recommend to everyone who enjoys the beauty and sound of automobiles. SF

Ferrari Spotting at the
Greystone Mansion
 Concours
 d'Elegance

Article and Photos By
 Anna McKinley

Since moving to beautiful Southern California almost three years ago, I knew of the Greystone Mansion Concours, but just couldn't manage to make it there until this year. Classic cars set at a Beverly Hills Mansion, what a treat! Several FCA SW members were in attendance with their beautiful Ferraris or other marques from their collections, each displayed in the lovely grounds.

The Italian sports cars would all be fun to drive and I was imagining what it would be like to drive one on the Amalfi coast or Monte Carlo when they were new. There were all types of vehicles displayed from an Alfa Romeo C6 (my favorite) to Peter McCoy's 1951 Ferrari 212, to Daniel Schoenwald's 1930 Brough Superior.

Among all these beautiful vehicles, someone is trying to get my attention. I never thought that I would be someone who would be recognized anywhere in public, let alone a car show. There we were looking at the beautiful display at Greystone and there's Peter Carniglia, his darling wife, Heidi, and their friends Alex and Lilly. We say our hellos and give hugs and then it's off to the other half of the cars on display.

Down the stairs there's a Mariachi band and margaritas! There was even a sighting of Wayne Carini, which my "shy" friend Julie didn't even hesitate to jump up and say hello to him. It is amazing how one event can bring together such a vast community of people from all walks of life. Beautiful setting, gorgeous vehicles, and wonderful people to share the day with, what more can a gal ask for? sf

3RD ANNUAL GOLF CLASSIC

Early this year, FCA SW together with its event partners including California Highway Patrol, CHP 11-99 Foundation, Art Center College of Design and the Petersen Automotive Museum, advanced plans to hold our 3rd Annual Golf Tournament in October.

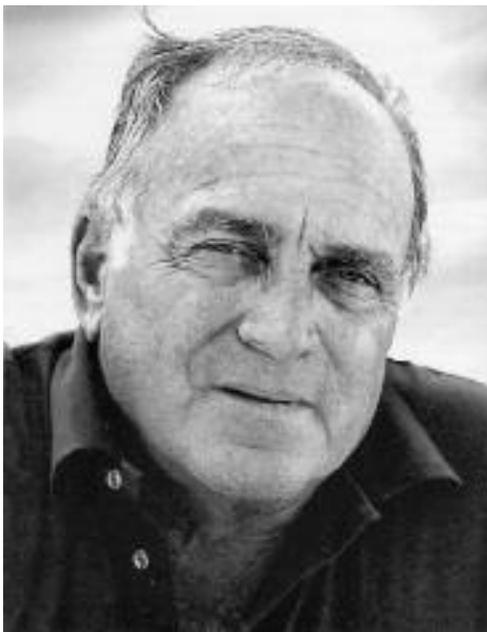

FCA and its partners have recently merged that proposed event into CHP 11-99 Foundation's 31st Annual Bob Weinberg Golf Tournament and Evening Show, to be held at Los Coyotes Country Club in Buena Park on Friday, September 20, 2013.

FCA members wishing to play are encouraged to register directly by contacting Judith Levine at (310) 455-3709 or jlevine@chp11-99.org, or visit www.chp11-99.org.

Each year, the event is a complete sell out. Your participation and contribution will all go directly to 11-99's mission; providing financial support for officers' family difficulties arising out of death while on duty or children's higher education.

In Memory
Cy Yedor

August 23, 1927 – April 30, 2013

Dear Members of the Southwest Region and all my friends,

My name is Cy Yedor. I was one of the founding fathers of the Ferrari Club of America, Southwest Region, back in 1994. While never having been a person of need to “honk my own horn,” I wish at this time to express thanks to all those who have made my life as meaningful and caring as I have wished. My associations in the car world go back to the Fabulous Fifties with such notables as Ken Miles and Phil Hill, having raced MGs, Oscas and Bristols at Santa Barbara, Torrey Pines, Pebble Beach and Palm Springs. Having lived in Beverly Hills with my wonderful wife, Judi, I have had the pleasure of also being a founding father of the Petersen Automotive Museum Checkered Flag 200, the California Sports Car Club and as a law abiding citizen, found merit in being an original member of the CHP 11-99 Foundation.

While having enjoyed our marque of choice for many years, my GTC4 was the car most remembered by my friends. However, my goal was to restore a 250 GT Ellena Coupe #0807, with it culminating in wins at Pebble Beach in 1996, and a cross county 2,900 mile drive to the 1997 Virginia International FCA meet where I realized every achievement.

I would like you all to know how memorable my experiences have been and the wonderful friends I have made within our cherished Ferrari community. I believe I have done all things a person of my choosing would wish and then some. I have always acted in a genteel manner and have been told by my cherished friends they loved me. What more could one ask?

I leave in this world my son Michael and his wife Kari, along with daughter Julie and my five grandchildren and two great-granddaughters.

May your life be as abundant and rewarding as mine.
It has been great to know you.

Yours truly,

Cyril B. Yedor

We invite you to experience a driving weekend to and within one of the world's most breath-taking environments.

Limited to 20 rooms only, please register early to reserve your experience for the Yosemite Grand Tour II.

Yosemite is one of the most extraordinarily breathtaking places in the world, set aside by congressional recognition authorized by President Abraham Lincoln during the midst of the Civil War in 1864 "for public use, resort, and recreation—inalienable for all time".

We have had the good fortune to secure 20 rooms at the beautiful Tenaya Lodge and The Ahwahnee Hotel over the weekend of May 9th, 10th, and 11th, 2014. Mid-May is an exquisite time to be in Yosemite, particularly in the Valley with the waterfalls in full-flow, the dogwood in full-bloom, and the season of spring revealing its magnificent beauty everywhere one looks.

In concert with the National Park Service, the Yosemite Conservancy, and the Park concessioner (Delaware North Parks and Resorts at Yosemite, Inc.), special arrangements have been made for FCA-Southwest Region members to have a Yosemite experience seldom encountered by the casual park visitor. Of note, participants in the fall 2011 Yosemite Grand Tour I were overwhelmingly effusive and extremely pleased with the success of that outing (please review the Jan-Mar 2011 Sempre Ferrari for that trip's memorable experiences). Indeed, since "YGT II" will occur when Yosemite is in all its springtime glory, we should have a truly outstanding event.

 GRAND TOUR II

May 9-11, 2014

As in 2011, our adventure will begin May 9th for assembly and breakfast (8:00 AM) and departure (9:00 AM) in Santa Clarita at the Hyatt Regency Valencia. After a 150 mile route (half freeway driving and half on two lane roads) we will have lunch at the Visalia Country Club (where our "prancing horses" will be safely parked and displayed on the golf course). Our departure will be at 1:00 PM for the Tenaya Lodge (just four miles outside of the Park) and will be a very picturesque and "Ferrari indulgent" drive. It is there that our Yosemite experience will begin (additional details to be shared later).

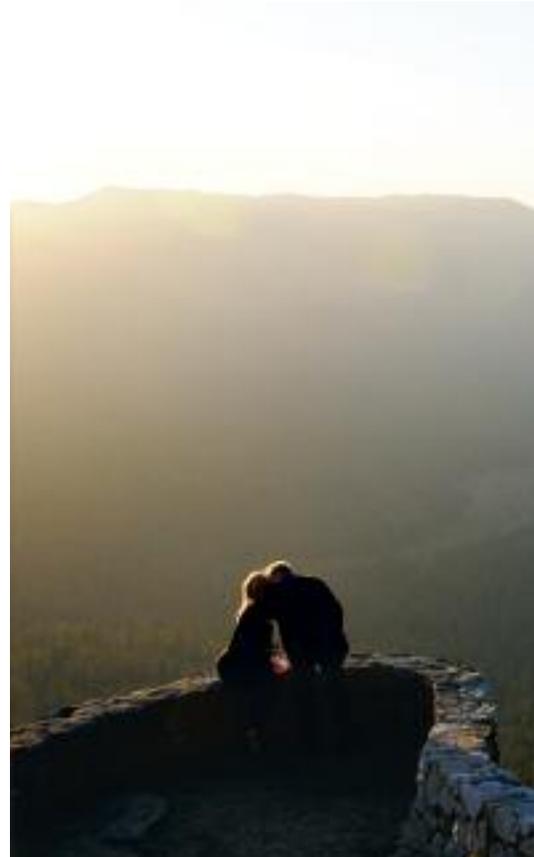

The package price for our outing will be $1,750 per couple and includes two nights of lodging, meals (except breakfasts) box lunches, cocktail receptions, lunch at the Visalia Country Club, and van transportation (when, where, and if required). For those who wish to stay over on Sunday, May 11th (Mother's Day) at The Ahwahnee Hotel, accommodations and meals will be on a no-host basis for that day and evening.

Based upon the success of Yosemite Grand Tour I, we anticipate that "YGT II" will sell out quickly and thus we are now moving forward with an early pre-registration period that will be available through August 31, 2013. Registrations that take place after the pre-registration date will be priced at $1,850 per couple.

The coordinators of "YGT II" are:
 Jack H. Walston - cell: 213) 505-7872, jack@twinvestmentcounsel.com and Tex Otto - off: 310) 836-0110, tex@synchronis.com

Please feel free to contact the above if you have any questions.

Please join us on this memorable FCA-SW driving event.
